

Minutes from the April 25th APS meeting

Carol Arnold demo at 2:30pm

Meeting called to order by President, Enid Wood.

Motion to adopt minutes from last meeting by Maribel Mast and second by C.J. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report

Last month's balance ended at $15,993.72. Sarah explained expenses and income. As of April 22, 2021, present balance is $13,271.56.

Treasure's report accepted.

Membership Chair, Joycelyn Schedler not present but sent report that of present we have 105 members.

Facebook has 82 members.

Renewal of dues for membership will be in May. Deb Mason will be our new Membership chair.

Juried Exhibition Chair

This position is open and a volunteer is requested. Julie Schmidt was asked to make comments about what this position involves.

Donation Chair

Rita Kirkman requested that those receiving prizes write thank you notes to those who donated for the exhibitions.

Peggy Anderson will chair after Rita's term is completed.

Non Juried Exhibition Chair

Cecile Ramirez gave report that our present exhibition will officially end June 21, but won't be taken down until August.

Next year Jodie Martin will be the chair.

Workshop Chair

Jan Weaver will be retiring from this potion this year and Jennifer Edwards will take her place for next year.

IAPS Representative

Enid Wood announced the 2022 IAPS convention will be help at the Hotel Albuquerque June 20-26, 2022.

IAPS also hosts a live exhibition and a virtual show.

Librarian

Sandy Medina was not able to attend, but will continue to serve as librarian. Available DVD's are listed on the website and she will send them out for us.

Scholarship Chair

Carolyn Kilday has no new information, as our scholarship has already been chosen. Our scholarship is funded by the fall paint-around.

Webmaster

Cecile Ramirez has been our hard working webmaster and is looking forward to turning this over to Anita D'Sousa in June.

Newsletter co chairs

Carolyn Kilday and Connie Pollex requests we send any news by mid-month and they will put it in the newsletter that comes out monthly.

Historian

Maribel Mast reported she has been taking screen shots and photos and will put them together for us at a future date.

Social Media

Joycelyn Schedler is retiring and our new chair for facebook will be Maribel Mast. No report as yet.

Door Prize Chair

Geneva Johnson used the names of the members attending the meeting as eligible winners. She drew Cecile Ramirez's name as the winner of a $25. gift card to Jerry's Artarama.

Old Business

Lynn Asselta will be the 2022 virtual workshop instructor on March 4,5, and 6, 2022 for our annual workshop. Only 12 students will be accepted. March 4th will the orientation. Hours of the virtual workshop will be 9AM to 4PM on Saturday and Sunday. There will be a 90-minute informal critique on Saturday evening, March 5. Registration will be on Sept 26th, during our first APS meeting of the fall. The 2 day workshop fee is $250 with a $90 deposit.

New Business

Officers and Chairpersons for next year:

President: Enid Wood

Vice-president: Yingying Chen

Secretary: Jan Weaver

Membership: Deb Mason

Juried Exhibition: Enid Wood until someone else signs up

Donations: Rita Kirman and Peggy Anderson

Non Juried Exhibition: Jodi Martin

Workshop Chair: Jennifer Edwards

Librarian: Sandy Medina

Scholarship Chair: Carolyn Kilday

Web-master as of June 1: Anita D'Souza

Membership: Deb Mason

Historian: Maribel Mast

Door-prize: Geneva Johnson

Request for any announcements:

Enid Wood will do a demo next week for PSST. It will be a flower on dark UArt paper.

Next Meeting will be May 23rd, 2021

Motion to adjourn was requested: motion made by Carol Arnold and 2nd by Jennifer Edwards motion carried. Meeting closed with a final screen shot of Carol Arnold's finished painting.