

APS meeting: Sunday Feb. 23, 2020

Minutes: Precision Camera

Enid Wood, President, called meeting to order at 2:30pm

Introduction to Demo by Nancy Lilly

Brenda Hash gave an informative and thorough explanation of her process of representational pastel painting. She had several steps already produced on three different pastel papers. Her demonstration continued while we had our Business meeting at 4:00 pm.

Enid Wood, Chair, called for adoption of minutes of last month's meetings.

Motion to adopt by Mike Etie, seconded by Maribel Mast; Motion carried.

Enid welcomed members and asked for any guests. Everyone in attendance was already an APS member.

Treasurer's Report by Sarah Tacker, Treasurer, financial report was printed out for all members.

Motion of accept report by Joycelyn Schedler, seconded by Linda Wells; Motion carried.

Reports by Chairpersons

Membership: Nancy Lilly indicated badges were at back table and called for any missing badges to be identified to her after meeting. She announced that we have 107 members.

Juried Exhibition Chair: Julie Schmidt announced there are 41 artists juried into this year's Annual Show at Austin Fine Art Gallery. There were 129 paintings submitted for jurying.

Delivery to AAF will be this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Show will be hung March 5.

March 6th Juror, Jeanne Rosier Smith, will judge show.

Demonstration by Ms. Rosier Smith will be open to members and guests Friday night, March 6 at Apache Shores on 14919 Gen. Williamson Dr. Austin Tx.78734: 7-9pm. Free for members, $25 for guests, cash or check only.

Request for snacks to be shared at Friday demonstration. Sign-up sheet.

Workshop will follow for those attending on March 7th and 8th, 2020.

March 15, 2020 Reception at AAF: Awards at 1:30 and reception from 2-4pm.

Invitations on web-site.

RSVP requested by AAF

APS recognized and thanked Julie and Cecile for their hard work on the show.

Donations: Rita Kirkman was unable to attend but Enid reports we have a great selection of prizes for awards.

Non Juried Exhibition Chair: vacant

IAPS Representative: Enid Wood had no new reports.

Librarian: Sandy Medina explained how to check out a video from APS collection for a month with a $50 check, not cashed unless video not returned. She's asking for recommendations for new videos.

Scholarship Chair: Carolyn Kilday was not present, but Enid announced our $1,000 award was extended to same student for another year.

Webmaster: Cecile Clause de Ramirez was thanked for her help.

Newsletter: Co-Chairs: Carolyn Kilday and Connie Pollex requested any news to be sent to them. Current news:

1. CTPS show in Bastrop: Julie Schmidt was accepted into the show. Reception is on Saturday, March 7 at Lost Pines Art Center in Bastrop from 6-8pm.

2. The Bunk House Show is in April: visit bunkhousegallery.com (Linda Wells)

3. Paint the Town event in Marble Falls the first week of April. This plein air event requires being juried in. See Nancy Overton to participate.

4.Round Rock Library: two women show by Nancy Lilly and Mary Olivera: month of March

5. Art at Mo Ranch in July: Joycelyn Schedler is teaching a pastel workshop, for the second year in a row.

Enid requested suggestions for 2022 workshops. Suggested juror/judge/workshop instructors: - Lyn Asselta, Terri Ford, Jason Aguiar, Paul Murray.

Motion by Linda Wells to close, 2nd by Sarah Tacker. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 4:30pm, with thanks to Brenda Hash.